In The Morning Of My Life

The sun rises and the sun sets. Each day brings about the same sun, only different. Maybe yesterday the sun was hidden behind the clouds, yet today its brightness is blinding. Perhaps tomorrow it will not shine at all.

A new song is sung until it becomes an old song. Yet each time someone sings its tune, that song becomes an individual expression, a new creation. The same song, only different.

There's a goal that all men strive for – to fill the world with love. It's not a new objective. The hope of filling the world with love was making headlines about two thousand years ago. It still is today. We each fill the world with love in our own way: a word of encouragement from that favorite teacher – a shared secret with your best friend – studying in hopes of really learning – a smile to a classmate – doing your job and doing it well – that's a bit of sunshine, a bit of love.

The Darkness Has Departed

In the morning of my life I shall look to the sunrise,
At a moment in my life when the world is new.
And the blessing I shall ask is that God will grant me,
To be brave and strong and true,
And to fill the world with love my whole life through.
And to fill the world with love,
And to fill the world with love,
And to fill the world with love, my whole life through.
In the evening of my life I shall look to the sunset,
At a moment in my life when the night is due,
And the question I shall ask only I can answer. Was I brave and strong and true?
Did I fill the world with love my whole life through?
Did I fill the world with love,
Did I fill the world with love,
Did I fill the world with love my whole life through?

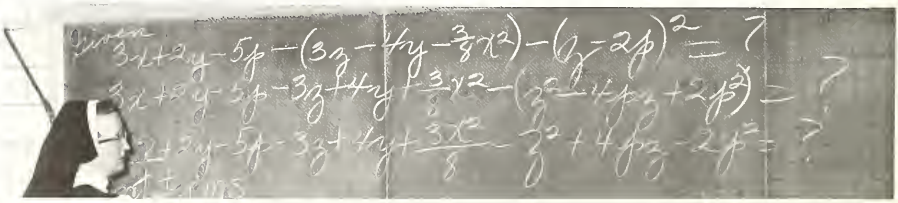
The Challenging

Here at Our Lady of Grace, the realm of mathematics is studied in the Pre-Algebra, Algebra I and II, Geometry and Trigometry courses. The Math Department acquaints the student with the basic concepts of mathematical reasoning. These Math courses also serve as a basis for the science courses offered here at Grace. These are Biology and Chemistry. The concepts absorbed on the Math courses are put into practice through experimentation in the science labs, where a student combines theory with practice.

Lynn Yanasak listens carefully to Laura Sanchez as she explains a very difficult problem.

Industrious Trig students Ann Blacker, Judy Morone, Linda Charlebois, Lygia Dominik and Nancy Kirch attempt a correct calculation by means of a slide rule. Heaven only knows who is correct!



Realms Of Science

Kathy Quill acquires a rough estimate of the capacity of her lungs by noting the amount of water she displaces from a gallon jar.

Anne Delaney, Anita Epp, Mary-jeanne Clarkson and Lisa Ray practice "independent study" in Chemistry class. By dividing the class into groups of four students per group, each is able to set its own pace.

Patty Moricat, Barb Winn and Mrs. Medsker enjoy having a few classes outside.

Joyce Mattox, Sue Moldthan and Judy Mattox take advantage of the excellent facilities of the school library to work on a World History project.

Social Studies Explore Past And Present

Karla Kunkel points out the location of the Chinese Empire.

United States History, World History, Government and Economics comprise Our Lady of Grace's Social Studies Department. Not only the when and how, but, most important, the why of the past and present events are explored by students delving into these courses. World History is made much more interesting by the small plays written and delivered by the students themselves, while Father Vogelsang adds his own bit of acting to liven students. The Government and Economics class also added a new twist to their class – instead of using the usual textbook, John Kenneth Galbraith's The Affluent Society was studied very thoroughly.

Debbie Kumburris, Claudia Dominik, Judy Mattox and Donna Zazopoulos recreate the French Revolution.

Father Vogelsang gives U.S. History students another one of his spine-tingling lectures on the blunders of great men in history.

An In Depth Study

Art Appreciation is an assortment of many different things including famous artists in the past and present, their lives, their styles and their techniques. In both Art and Art Appreciation, the student learns of the different types of art, such as paintings and sculptures. Students also learn about the different tools used in many types of art. Art students not only learn about these tools, but also learn how to use them. Both Art and Art Appreciation broaden a student's knowledge of art in many forms.

Janine O'Mara works diligently on an art project.

Liz Dodson and Sue Teipen add a few last minute touches before putting their creations into the kiln.

Of The Arts

Music and Music Appreciation are two subjects designed for the cultural development of a student. In both classes, the student studies many forms of music from many different periods of time, such as the Classical Period, and comes to appreciate them.

A group of Freshmen find their appreciation of music in singing a light, happy song.

Safety Courses Provide

Sister Mary Mark Bartoo is the head of the departments Health, Driver's Ed and Physical Education. Many students who sign up for these courses find them to be interesting and sometimes even fun. In Health a student may learn anything from how to bandage a sprain to how to treat a burn. Driver's Ed proves especially beneficial to students today because of the high caliber of driving instructions that this course offers. Also very important to a young lady today is keeping in shape. Physical Education gives a student at Grace an opportunity to do so.

Susie Quill painfully holds out her arm while Claudia Shoemaker bandages i

Candy Roell checks the back of the Driver's Ed car to see if she put any dents in it.

Varied Events

Elaine Mitchell executes a jackknife as Rosemarie Myers and Joan Pote observe.

Guarded by Julie Kramer, Cindy Kavanaugh tries to take a shot at the basket while Donna Zazopoulos, Cheryl Pierson and Joan Pote rush to her aid.

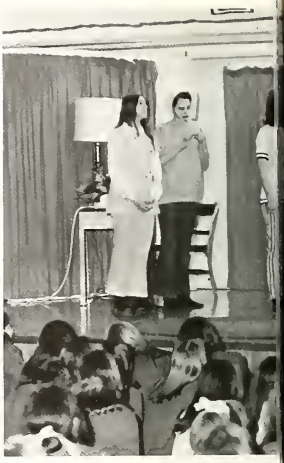
Creating A Novel Interest

The English Department consists of English I, II, III, and IV, Speech and also the Library. All English courses dwell mainly in broadening the students' knowledge of literature. This is accomplished in two ways: through textbook reading and outside reading, namely the reading of novels. The time not spent in broadening literary knowledge is spent in the study of English Grammar. Students agree that reading can be fun, but Grammar? Never!



Debbie Darko, Terry Stasko, Karen burn, Alice Bishop and Cecilia Elsne

Mary Anne Doyle, Mary Moriarty, Teresa Simeone and Beth Arszman find Sister Mary Cecile very helpful in English III.

Jan Grismore enjoys working in the Library as a librarian's aid.

Sophomores enjoy reading Cavalcade in a relaxed atmosphere.

Peggy Newman, Jan Carroll and Candy Roell have a panel discussion on a novel of their own choice.

Alice Bishop rehearses her speech for the speech contest.

Language Study Promotes Understanding

The Foreign Language Department consists of three different languages – French, Latin and Spanish. Advantages involved in taking a foreign language are that one not only learns to speak the language, but also learns to appreciate the customs and traditions of the people to whom the language is native, as well as the people themselves.

Debbie Kramer, Anne O'Connor, Cheryl Siegman, Theresa Lohman, Teresa Simeone and Terry Haller listen raptly in Spanish III.

Latin scholars find the life of Julius Caesar very interesting.

Linda Duffin and Beth McNevin prepare the film projector for another action-packed adventure of the Fernandez family.

Skills For Today, Tomorrow

Cindy Kavanaugh checks the stitching in her hem.

Skill in planning and managing a home, as well as a broad background in clothing, is important in handling domestic affairs. For this reason, Home Economics is offered to anyone desiring it at Grace. Home Economics I, II and III may be taken here. Home Economics I deals with the basics of sewing and cooking. Home Economics II is a continuation of Home Economics I and Home Economics III concerns interior decorating and child care.

Denise Lohman painstakingly sews the seam of her skirt.

Tee Yoder, Mary Seal, Diane Layne and Patty Reese demonstrate the skill with which they decorate the cakes made in Home Economics II.

Students listen to the word of God, the Gospel, as read by Father Smith at a student Mass.

Of the many aspects in the life of a girl at Our Lady of Grace, the religious aspect is, perhaps, the most important. It is in her religion class that she learns to relate God with the world around her, to learn about life, because that's just what religion is – life.

Debbie Kramer, Beth Arszman, Jody Wyss, Mary Scollard, Jan Madden and Teresa Simeone practice a few songs for their class Mass. Each class, if they so desire, may plan their own class Mass, which they will attend during one of their religion class periods.

Preparation For Future Professions

Jackie Hancock uses the Dictaphone in Typing II.

The exciting atmosphere of the business office has lured many a woman to the world of business. For those who choose the business world, there is a variety of fields in which one may become proficient. The business courses offered by Our Lady of Grace include Typing I and II, Shorthand I and II, Bookkeeping, Business English, and Business Math. Girls enter these classes with the hope that through diligent study, practice and patience, they will be able to learn all the necessary techniques of good office procedures.

By taking the business courses offered here at Grace, students are able to receive a preview of future expectations, even though on a much smaller scale.

Induction ceremonies of the National Honor Society members were held on March 30. Membership is based on the four cardinal principles of the National Honor Society, that is, leadership, character, service and scholarship. Membership is limited to 15 percent of the Senior class, 10 percent of the Junior class and 5 percent of the Sophomore class. Sophomores are provisional members, eligible for full membership their Junior year if they continue the standards set by the Society.

The purpose of the French Club is to broaden our knowledge of the French people and their customs, and just to have a good time with people who have the same interest. The French Club met once a month to discuss future plans, usually ending the meetings with a few French songs. French Club activities included a Get Acquainted party, French Christmas party and a picnic at the end of the year featuring authentic French food.

The French Club officers are Lucy Deubelbeiss, Secretary-Treasurer; Clare Stich Vice-President and Linda Charlebois, President.

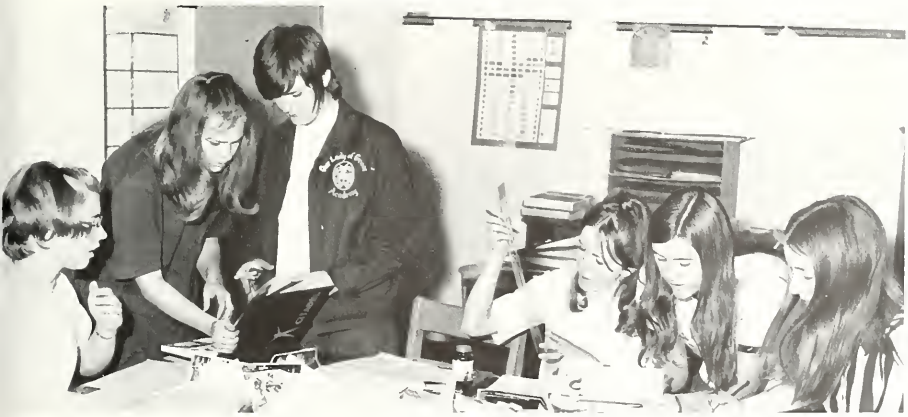
Hard Work Equals Successful Yearbook

Assistant editor, Janet Sutton, and editor, Tina Rothring head the 1970-71 Mediatrix.

Under the direction of the advisor, Sister Mary Jonathan, the Mediatrix staff for the year 1970-71 worked many long hours to try to make the yearbook the best ever. Because the staff had to lay-out more pages, meet three deadlines and work with a new company, they often worked late into the night.

Presenting Sister Mary Jonathan with a gift of appreciation is Tina Rothring.



The Mediatrix staff, Janet Sutton, Lygia Dominik, Tina Rothring, Lora Cody, Ann Blacker and Pam Sciarra, work diligently through the night.

Goblins Will Get Ya

The annual Halloween Party, sponsored by the Junior class, was held on Thursday night, October 29, 1970, in the Student Center Gym. The party began at 7:00 p.m. and terminated at 9:30 p.m. The admission required this year was only that one wear a costume.

Decorations consisted of various scenes of horror, such as a beheaded victim of the guillotine, hideous scarecrows suspended from the basketball goals and a spooky graveyard. The main feature of the evening was a movie adaptation of Edgar Allen Poe's "The Pit and the Pendulum."

Witch Gina Rostanzo fixes her evil eye on a promising victim.

Allana Miller hopes for handout of cookies and apple cider.

Tee Yoder, Cheryl Pierson, Sheila Hartgrove, Allana Miller and Heidi Schulz anxiously await entrance to the Gym..

Dance to the Music

Mary Gaughn and Tess Lohman enjoy the beat of the music provided by "Hard Luck."

The annual Mardis Gras sockhop, sponsored by the Sophomore class, was held on March 13, 1971, in the Student Center gym. A patriotic theme set the mood of the sockhop, with a peace sign and an American flag as the backdrop for the entire stage, and also served as a backdrop for the band. The music was provided by "Hard Luck." The purpose of the Mardis Gras sockhop is to provide money for the yearbook.

In A Winter Wonderland

The theme of the annual Holly Berry Ball, held on December 11, 1970, in the Student Center was "In a Winter Wonderland." The main decoration consisted of a sleigh filled with colorfully wrapped presents surrounded by snow-covered trees. Penny Queen candidates were Ann Blacker and Terry Haller, Seniors; Debbie Michaelis and Mary Lou Mitchell, Juniors; Marie Dreyer and Cathy Williams, Sophomores; and Debbie Bohman and Beth Guinen, Freshmen.

Candy Sale Enriches Wealth And Spirit

The Candy Sale was "kicked off" as always with the Candy Sale Pep Rally. Each class presented a skit. The Freshmen began the program with a variety of little skits, ending with a "Cowboy Bob" skit complete with cartoons. The Sophomores followed with an adaptation to the story "The Three Little Pigs." The Juniors did a take off of the "Johnny Carson Show," and the Seniors brought the Candy Pep Rally to an end by telling the student body why they're glad they're Grace Girls. The Seniors won the Candy Sale. Tina Rothring, Pam Sciarra, Mary Wheatley and Joan Fisher display their many talents in the senior Candy Skit.

Mothers Excel In Spirited Game

Although originally scheduled as a Mother-Mother Volleyball Game, January 27 became a Mother-Mother, Mother-Faculty, and Mother-Daughter Volleyball Game. Having played one game against each other, the mothers challenged the faculty to a game in which the faculty was soundly beaten. The daughters ruined the mothers' winning streak, but not the evening. Everyone went home entirely exhausted, but completely happy.

"Hey, hey! The mothers just defeated the faculty!"

Mrs. J. Dominik, Mrs. H. Hier and Mrs. C. Thinnes stare in disbelief as the referee, Mr. J. Wyss rules the volleyball out of bounds.

Swimmers Take Your Mark

A swim meet, sponsored by the Junior class, was held on March 10, 1971. There were twelve different categories from which a contestant could choose which included the dog paddle (dp), breast stroke (brs), side stroke (ss), back stroke (bs), float on back (fob), race under water (ruw), hold breath longest (hbl), fast relay (fr), slow relay (sr), best forward dive (fd), best jackknife (jk), and best back dive (bd). The Sophomores won the meet by scoring the most points.

Kicked Over And Beyond Our Goals

The yearbook Ad Rally served three main purposes: It explained the details of the Ad Drive, it demonstrated the correct way to fill out the ad contract and it sparked enthusiasm in the student body to try to acquire ads for the Mediatrix. Any student fulfilling her individual goal received a 10 percent commission. The Sophomore class won the Drive with over 100 percent of their goal in.

Italian Atmosphere Reig

Sunday, February 21, 1971, marked the annual Spaghetti Social of Our Lady of Grace Academy. The Social began at 12 noon and ended at 6 p.m. The traditional spaghetti dinner, consisting of spaghetti, salad, cake and home-made bread, was served at any time during this period in the Academy Cafeteria. As in previous years, there were games that could be played in the Student Center Gym. A new game at the Social this year was the Golf-Game. Other games included Baseball, Basketball, Fish Pond, Cakewalk, Ring-A-Cane, Toy Shop, Money Wheel, Texas Poker and Spill the Milk. Another new attraction this year was the "Old Jailhouse." The total net income for the Social was $6,540.45, which will be used towards the purchase of additional audio-visual equipment for the Academy.

These people may not be of Italian descent, but for one day in their lives, they can switch nationalities.

He Is Born

At Christmas time each year, Our Lady of Grace presents a Christmas Cantata, which tells the story of the birth of Jesus Christ in the form of vocal choruses, solos and recitatives. The highpoint of the Cantata this year was again Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus."

The entire audience stood up in recognition of the Choral Group's performance as the Chorus made their exit.

Julie Looney, Stephanie Blair, Alison Davey and Joan Stahl find that being in charge of refreshments is not all hard work. There are moments of fun.

The Freshmen of the 1970-71 school year decided that a party was in order for the incoming Freshmen and thus had a party for them. It was held on Wednesday, May 12, 1971, in the Student Center. There was no strict plan of entertainment. If someone wanted to swim, she was welcome to swim. However, there were a few games played in the gym, but not everyone was obligated to play. The incoming Freshmen were welcomed to Grace in a refreshing manner and incoming Freshmen had a wonderful time.

Speed Wins Little 500

Girls, "start your engines!" The authentic cry of the famous Indianpolis 500 Mile Race was carried through in the Little 500 of Our Lady of Grace. This year the ceremonies began with a parade of floats and race cars led by the National Flag and the traditional 500 flags. Next in line were the four queen candidates.

In the last of ten heats the Sophomore car "Speed" held the lead against the Senior car "The Green Phantom" to become the winner of the 1971 Little 500. During half-time the queen candidates in their formal attire awaited the results of this year's Penny Queen Contest. Mrs. Medsker crowned Donna Gallagher, Senior, as 1971 Penny Queen. The annual Little 500 is sponsored by the Mediatrix.

On The Fashion Scene

The annual style show, presented by the Home Economics I and II classes, was held on Monday, May 24, in the Student Center Gym. The styles ranged from very casual, with clothes such as Hot Pants and Peasant dresses to very dressy clothes, such as formals. No matter what the girls made, they all displayed a remarkable talent for sewing.

Carolyn Beagle is proud to wear the outfit she made in Home Ec.

May 2, 1971, was the date of the annual Father-Daughter Evening. The theme for this year was "Color Him Father, Color Him Mine," and the decorations consisted of flowers on the tables and pictures of dads. Fathers and daughters took part in the entertainment by being a contestant in either the "Father-Daughter Game" or the "Father of the Year" contest. Mr. Stickan and his daughter, Clare, were the winners of the "Father-Daughter Game," and Mr. Morone was declared "Father of the Year." Mr. Charlebois, "Father of the Year" for 1971, was on hand to present a trophy to Mr. Morone and to give a few words of wisdom to the fathers.

Blessed Mother Crowned Queen Of Peace

The celebration of May Crowning Mass.

Every May, the students of-Our-Lady of Grace honor the Blessed Virgin with a Mass and then proceed to the Academy entrance circle, where Grace's Queen of May, a Senior, gives her crown to the Blessed Mother. This year, May Crowning ceremonies began in the morning with the traditional Mass, followed by the crowning of Mary. At the Offertory of the Mass, each student took a flower up to the altar, and placed it in a basket as an offering to Mary. When the procession went outside to the circle, the baskets of flowers were placed next to the statue of Mary, while Queen Katrina Gilley removed the crown from her own head and placed it on the Blessed Mother's head. Since Mary is also the Queen of Peace, during the afternoon, the entire student body gathered around the flagpole to say a rosary for peace in the world and our own United States.

The highpoint of every Junior and Senior's social year is the Junior-Senior Prom. This year, the Prom was held on the third floor of the Columbia Club on April 30, 1971. The first few couples began arriving at 9:00 p.m. to be greeted by a Cathedral dance band. On every table were small brandy snifters with the theme of the Prom, "If Ever I Would Leave You", and the date of the Prom printed on them. Each girl also received a yellow rose and a Prom booklet. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the 1971 Junior-Senior Prom Queen, Debie Buchanan.

The annual Our Lady of Grace Latin School production for the year of 1971 was Alan Jay Lerner's Brigadoon. It was presented at the Latin School Gym on three consecutive nights, Friday through Sunday, May 14, 15, and 16. Much work went into the musical, and this was clearly evident in the production's success. To add variety to the stage setting, over to the right of the stage was an extended stage, made to resemble a hill where heather could be gathered. The audience was involved more in the play through the entrance to MacConnachy Square from the audience and a chase scene through the audience. The musical was a terrific success and everyone in the production went home Sunday night tired, but proud.

Jeff Douglas, Tommy Albright and Fiona MacLaren played by Marty Risch, Alan Roell and Marianne Flanagan, respectively, listen with rapt attention as Mr. Lunde, played by Gary Cox, explains the miracle of Brigadoon.

The combined forces of the Latin School and Our Lady of Grace Choral Groups were an asset to the musical.

Charlie Dalrymple, played by Ralph Scheidler, sings "I'll Go Home With Bonny Jean" just a few hours before his marriage.

Tommy Albright and Fiona MacLaren (Alan Roell and Marianne Flanagan) sing "Almost Like Being In Love."

Two townfolk, Jody Wyss and Mary Cecil, help Jeanie with her packing as she prepares to leave home after her marriage to Charlie Dalrymple.

Getting To Know You

The Senior Big Sisters held a Big Sister-Little Sister Party for their Little Sisters on Wednesday evening, April 21, 1971, in the Student Center Gym. A Spring Style Show, featured as the main entertainment, was presented by the Seniors, followed by refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and punch. Both Big and Little Sisters had a fine time.

Joan Fisher, a Senior Big Sister, helps in the refreshment department.

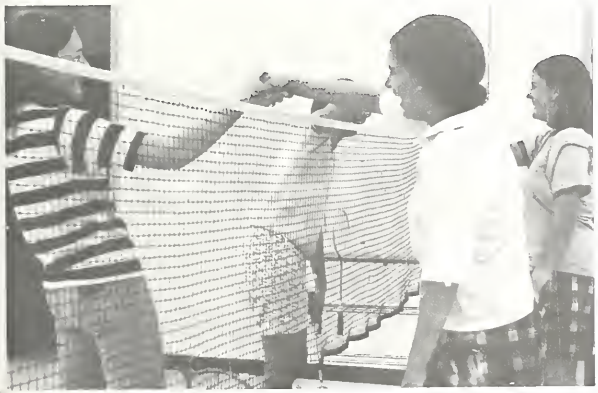
Lani Iozzo challenges Carla Gunn in a jump to begin the game while Cathy DeLuca and Sister Mark watch.

Fun, excitement and practice can be found by students at Grace in joining an Intramural Team. This year, under the supervision of Sister Mary Mark, the girls formed basketball teams consisting of six players each. During the course of the basketball season every team had an opportunity to play the other teams. Another popular sport here at Grace was volleyball. Students enjoyed forming impromptu teams during lunch hour and playing a quick game. Badminton also proved to be an exciting sport for students this year. A tourney was held to determine who was the best, and the contestants played until only one girl remained as the champion.

Future Olympics? Doubtful



Jody Wyss and Janet Sutton shake hands with their opponents Debbie Roell and Carol Boyce as congratulations on a fine game.

Stephanie Calhoun, Janet Sutton, Jody Wyss, and Mary Gaughan "raise the roof" with cheers.

Various Assemblies

Throughout the school year, a variety of assemblies was presented to the student body. Each of these assemblies had something to offer. Examples of these numerous assemblies include: the Jewish folk singers, a panel from Recovery, and several foreign speakers. These assemblies helped in broadening the views of the students.

Leadership Prevails In Junior Class

The Junior year is a year of beginning preparation for college. During this year, the Juniors take the first of the various college board exams. These include the PSAT, SAT, and the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

During the previous years at OLG the class of '72 has taken a lead in school activities. This year is no exception. The many activities which the Junior class sponsors include the annual Halloween Party, a swim meet, a car wash for the Yearbook and the prom and after-prom picnic. The high point of the Junior year is December 8. It is on this day that the Juniors recieve their class rings – the symbol of their class unity.

Co-chairman, Kathy Slinger, and chairman, Suzanne Farmer, work as one toward a successful Junior year.

Sophomores Display Enthusiasm

Contrary to popular belief, the Sophomore year is not a year of dwindling spirit, but a year of rising spirit. At least it is for the Sophomore class of 1971. Their enthusiasm is displayed in the success of the annual Mardi Gras Dance and in their achievement of bringing in over one hundred percent of their quota in the first annual Yearbook ad drive, thus declaring themselves the winners. It is also this enthusiasm which is responsible for their victories in both the badminton tourney and the schoolwide swim meet. The Sophomore class strives to carry this spirit into their upcoming Junior year.

Freshmen Develop Grace Spirit

Cynthia Kavanaugh, Lynn Hurrle and Jane O'Connor demonstrate the Freshman rage of the 1970-71 school year – clackers.

The Freshman year begins with a feeling of anticipation and apprehension – "What do we do when we get there?" Freshman Orientation helps them to overcome this apprehension. Freshmen find new responsibilities awaiting them. Their most important responsibility lies in choosing well qualified leaders for their first year at OLG. The activities they must plan include a St. Patrick's Day Party for the people at St. Paul Hermitage, a get acquainted get-together for the incoming Freshmen of 1971 and an Auf Wiedersehen Party for the student body at the end of the year. By June 8, the Freshmen find that they have become an integral part of OLG.

Father Kenneth Smith, Archbishop George Biskup and Father Clifford Vogelsang pass out the diplomas to the graduates.

The world is so empty if one thinks

But to know someone here and there

And who, though distant, is close to us in spirit,
This makes the earth for us an

Baccalaureate Brings Joys And Sorrows

The farewell address of Baccalaureate began at 8:15 a.m. at the traditional Baccalaureate Mass, where the student body gives her farewell to the Seniors. Following the Mass, the Seniors proceeded to the cafeteria, where they breakfasted before the Baccalaureate Assembly in the gym. It was at the Assembly that the Seniors said their goodbyes to the remaining students. Each Senior left a part of herself behind by willing something to some one special person, someone who would remain at Grace in the next year, one of her valuable possessions.

Pat Dugan, chairman of the Class of '71, conducts the Baccalaureate Assembly while Linda Charlebois and Mary-jeanne Clarkson listen intently.

Jacinta Trapp reads the will of the Class of '71 while Clare Stickan waits to pass out the remembrances willed.

Clare Stickan hands Martha Gelarden a bathing suit willed by Jackie Hancock.

Co-chairman, Lygia Dominik, and chairman, Pat Dugan work cheerfully together to make a final year at Our Lady of Grace a great year.

The Senior year is the most important time in any high school student's life. Seniors no longer follow, but lead. All other classes look at them with renewed respect; the Freshmen with awe, the Sophomores warily, and the Juniors perhaps with a touch of envy.

For the Senior, it is a year full of activity. These activities include the "Big Sister-Little Sister" parties, First Friday lunches with "Little Sisters," the Senior talent show, the annual Christmas Party, a reception for the Juniors after their Ring Ceremony, May Queen, Baccalaureate breakfast, and Graduation excercises.

This year marks the end of carefree high school days and the beginning of the years to come. Seniors look forward to their futures, whether definite or vague, with hope and anticipation.

Our People Behind The Scenes

Behind everything great are people who are neither seen nor heard, yet their presence is very much felt. So, behind the scenes at Our Lady of Grace are our neither seen nor heard people, the maintenance crew and the Academy cooks. These are the people who keep the grounds looking beautiful, make sure the pool is in swimming condition, prepare good food for growing girls and many other things. These are the people that make school life bearable.

Mrs. Catherine Cord (left) is in charge of the laundry, while Mrs. Grace McKenzie keeps the interior of the Academy spotless.

Mr. Joe Hamill is the maintenance engineer of the Student Center.

Mr. Wendell Sutton is our electrical engineer.

Mrs. Peggy Clayton prepares supper for the boarders.

Mr. James Worland handles all carpentry work and drives the bus.

Mr. Otho Baskerville keeps the school grounds in tip top shape.

Mrs. Alice Kinser and Mrs. Norma O'Connor add sparkle and joy, as well as fabulous food and savory smells to the academy kitchen.

Mr. Dallas Matheson takes special care of the Student Center.
